

girl of the week

October 19, 2007

Posted By:

Girl of the Week

This week's Girl of the Week, CLAUDIA DA PONTE is a fashion stylist and costumer. Claudia lives, eats and breathes fashion. Inspired by a Coco Chanel book as a young girl, Claudia looks forward to one day jet setting it to Europe to establish her career there. And we think she is well on her way. Check out Claudia's gorgeous portfolio at her website Da Ponte Style.

What are you wearing: TeenFlo Blazer, International Concepts Top, Sanctuary Clothing Jeans, A. Gianetti Boots, beaded ring from Portugal, black ring from Etcetera, amethyst ring and a gold bracelet given to me by my grandmother.

My favorite designers: Karl Lagerfeld is my god! I'm also a huge fan of Tom Ford - the man is sex! Betsey Johnson is just awesome and playful! My annual birthday present to myself is a new dress. I think that every lady should own something that makes her feel like a princess. And locally, I adore Jason Matlo because he knows that elegance is all about the silhouette and Jolie Couture is stunning and creative.

My favorite labels: Chanel, Nanette Lepore, Diane Von Furstenberg, Rebecca Taylor and Elie Tahari. I've always found myself attracted to elegant and fancy clothes!

My favorite stores or shopping places: Holt Renfrew, BCBG, Zara, vintage shops and I absolutely love shopping in Europe.

What's your go-to look: Nice dress pants and a super cute top paired with some killer pumps.

What would you never wear: Never say never! I'm not afraid to stand out!

What can you never get enough of: Clothes!! And shoes!! I have something like 40 pairs.

Your most prized accessory: An amethyst ring that my best friend, Lauren Taylor, gave me! It has sentimental value to it.

Favorite girls with style: Coco Chanel, Audrey Hepburn, Nan Kempner, Carine Roitfeld and Tinsley Mortimer.